CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 30.—Griffith sent his Highlanders against the White Stockings here this afternoon, opening the final series of the season between these two clubs. Both managers wanted the first game and thus got a flying start; but the Highlanders in their crippled condition, were not match for the White Sox and were whitewashed by a score of 4 to nothing.

Chicago did good work, but received rather weak support, particularly in the third, when three runs were scored. After that the New Yorkers settled down and Chicago was unable to score in the remaining innings. Griffith expects to have a better showing to-morrow and believes St. Louis will hold the Bostonians down.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 30.—The Ban Eaters, still sore from their wallowing in Cleveland, run up against another snare to-day, and were treated to a 3-0 whitewash, the score being 3 to nothing. The visitors, however, held the home team down pretty closely and did not lose their heads at any time, so that the scoring was done in three different innings, the first fifth and sixth. The Bostonians have not given up hopes of winning the pennant yet, and were greatly encouraged by the defeat of the Yankees at Chicago. Gibson and Leever were the opposing pitchers in to-day's game. The former did exceptionally fine work.

SENDS BUTLER TO THE FLOOR

IN LESS THAN TWO MINUTES

In the Philadelphia Fight Jack O'Brien Conclusively Establishes His Hitting Ability.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., September 30.—Jack O'Brien made short work of Joe Butler at the Broadway Athletic Club last night. In a little less than two minutes after he entered the ring, he was on his way to a waiting cab, having knocked the big colored man completely out with a right hander to the jaw.

The knockout was an artistic one, and O'Brien set at rest once and for all the question of his hitting ability. Butler was a model of the well trained pugilist as he faced his younger opponent. For a minute or so he showed some of his old-time cleverness, but the admiring O'Brien was too much for him, and once he had Butler's measure there was only one man in the fight.

O'Brien began by trying to feint the veteran to a lead, but Butler refused to be led into the trap. Then Jack sent a light left to Joe's neck, and got a hard right on the ribs for his pains. They clinched, and on the breakaway O'Brien flinched with the left, and sending a straight right to the jaw, put the colored man down for the count. Butler got up dazed. O'Brien tried the trick again. He felt Butler's body with a light left, and gave him a right hander to the jaw. Butler dropped like a log, face downward, and was counted out.

Al Young, the amateur fighter, who took part in the Olympic boxing championships and won the 16-pound medal, has decided to turn professional and is to have a match with Chicago Jack O'Keefe.

NORFOLK TRYING TO CAPTURE BIG GAME

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, Va., September 30.—The managers of the Lafayette Park Field Association left here tonight for Philadelphia to confer with the manager of the University of Virginia football team with a view to getting the Georgetown-Virginia game played here this fall.

This game, if it materializes, will mark the resumption of athletic relations between Virginia and Georgetown, which were severed in 1901, when the Washington boys defeated the Orange and Blue in a heart-breaking finish. The Virginia team became sore over their loss, and charged Georgetown with professionalism, and, incidentally, College Topics made some remarks about Georgetown's eleven being sprinkled with holy water to insure being "game." The Blue and Gray collegians took this as an insult to the denomination of their alma mater, and a joint severance of relations resulted.

The Lafayette field management has positive information that there are negotiations going on for a healing of the breach, and is taking time by the forelock in an endeavor to have the first contest played here.

World of Sports

Foot-Ball.

Virginia's game with Pennsylvania to-day is to the locals the most notable event in the foot-ball world. Both teams are down for hard work, and a snappy game may well be expected. Philadelphia are commencing upon the fact that the Southerners are coached by George Sanford, the former versatile Columbia coach, and appear somewhat apprehensive that he will give Pennsylvania the opportunity of figuring on some of the original plays which caused Yale considerable confusion in the days gone by.

With a lot of veteran players, Captain Hogan of Yale, is making a regular whirlwind captain. He is a tremendous worker, and has already done more than many captains have accomplished by the middle of October in other seasons.

At Princeton they saw the new material is turning out all right. Arthur Hillbrand will coach the team again and there will be no four-flushing coaches around looking for advertising. Hillbrand has been very successful at Princeton, as the Tigers won the championship two years in row under his tutelage, and also produced the championship ball team this year and last.

Carlisle has lost little Hudson, the drop kicker, who has gone to Pittsburg, where he is in a bank. Bonus Pierce, who will assist Coach Rogers, will take Hudson's place on the Indian team. Exendine, Carlisle's best end, has been sick in Philadelphia, and probably will not play until the Harvard game, if at all.

Yale men intend to make an effort to get back into the game. The last year's guard, out of the Reading, Pa., jail. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for allowing gambling to be conducted in his cigar store. The feeling among Yale folk is that he was made a victim of the gambling element.

The statement of the Quakers' coaches that Penn will insist that Harvard play her full thirty-five-minute halves at Cambridge October 20th, or forfeit the game, is not taken seriously at Cambridge. After being beaten six years running, Penn is in a position to dictate, and if Harvard considers the game less important than formerly, it is Harvard's own matter. Penn is not willing to lose the Harvard game at any cost, and most Harvard men would be willing to see Princeton on the schedule anyway.—Boston Globe.

Base-Ball.

The Western teams of the American League yesterday kept up their good work against the Easterners, and if there were a week more of this kind of weather, the Westerners would give both New York and Boston a good scare.

St. Louis defeated the Champions yesterday in a shut out game, while Chicago was defeating New York 4 to 0, and Cleveland was whitewashing the Senators 3 to 0. Philadelphia and Detroit played a double-header, on which they divided honors.

New York again tickles Chicago to-day with Chesbro pitching for the Highlanders. The master of the "split ball" and the king pitcher in the business had to go in to relieve Putnam yesterday after the game was lost. He stopped the scoring, but the New York men could not bat White's delivery and lost out. Boston will again play St. Louis to-day and to-morrow.

Chesbro has won 80 per cent. of the games he has pitched this season. Every time he pitched, he won. He has already been docked to Bobtail. Pitcher Tannehill, of the Bostonians, has gone home and will not play again this season. He is suffering from a strained side.

Last winter the Boston Americans gave away Outfielder Stone and Jake Stahl. This fall they paid $4,000 to get Stone back and offered $5,000 and La Chance for the return of Stahl. Neither man got a fair chance to show his worth while a member of the Champions.

Every newspaper in New York city, as well as in all other cities, has scored the management of the Giants for dodging a meeting with the American League champions. President Johnson has written a letter to President Fullam reminding him that it was the sense of the joint championship teams of the major leagues should play a world's series.

Turf and Track.

Red Bird, 2-year-old, recently purchased by a New Yorker, is the fastest bred Kansas horse out this season.

A trotting race has been suggested with Lou Dillon, Major Delmar, Sweet Marie and three others as the contestants. Such an event is not probable, but if it should take place it undoubtedly would prove the best trotting race in harness history.

The weights for the Jerome Handicap, at one mile and five-sixteenths, to be run on Monday night, at Jamaica Park, are as follows: Red Bird, 122; Bryn Mawr 128; Mercury 114; Ormonde's Right 111; Israel 110; Jound and Outcome 104 each; Leonidas and St. Valentine 105 each; Minnie 102. The Southern 102, Ocean Tide 97, Marmee and Tippecanoe 95 each, Prospector 92, Silver Days 89, Phoebe 87, Silverfoot 86.

Two of the most sensational trotting races in the world have arrived here to prepare for the great Kentucky Futurity for five-year-olds next Tuesday. They are Alta Asenator, 2-year-old, and Grace Asenator, 3-year-old. They will be given workouts Sunday and made ready for this historical event, worth $10,000 to the winner.

League Championship.

The game between the Brownies and Barton Heights at 4 o'clock this afternoon will settle the championship of the Twin City League. The clubs are now tied for first place, and the game may be looked forward to as even "warmer" than those of yesterday and the previous day.

During the game Mr. Spiers will liberate a homing pigeon at the close of each inning, and the bird will carry the score to Atlanta.

CHAMPION BROWNIES

They Sustained Their Reputation of Being Invincible.

GREAT EXHIBITION OF BALL

Fulton Team Virginia Champions—Twin City Championship To-day.

The Brownies are still champions of Virginia. By defeating the strong Barton Heights team in a snappy game yesterday afternoon they maintain their standing as the fastest semi-professional team in the State. Every step was strenuously fought by the Northiders, every decision by the two umpires caused the youngsters to register kicks, and the game was, accordingly, at a fever heat all through.

Before the game started, the Barton Heights team registered a kick against Umpire Duke, and it was finally decided to have two umpires, and Dalton, a member of the Richmond team, was put in to assist Mr. Duke. Despite this arrangement, the youngsters found many opportunities to kick, and they took advantage of every one of them.

The result of the game was a disappointment to a large delegation of rooters, but they took the defeat philosophically, and made up their minds to root hard and long in the games this afternoon.

There were no sensational plays in the game, although Boone excelled in several good line catches at second. The hitting was fierce on both sides. The Brownies catching nine hits, with a total of eleven bases, and Barton Heights eleven hits, with a total of seventeen bases. Errors were scarce, and the out and in-fielding was superb. Shelton was unfortunate in passed balls. He did not seem to be able to catch on to Lewis's curves, and the signals appeared to be mixed.

Barton Heights was strengthened by the aid of Holland, of the Manchester team. He did good work. As a runner, Bieble led, and he was the only man on the Brownies' team who errored, a throw from Frost by which Bache got to second.

Strenuously did the Northiders play, that the game was not settled until the last man was out in the gathering gloom of the ninth, and the rooters were loth to leave the park even then.

Brownies' Runs.

The first run was made by Bieble. He was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and scored on Eacho's hit. In the second inning Knowles safed because Taylor dropped his fly ball. He went to third on a passed ball, and scored on Lewis's error. In the third inning there were two balk innings, and in the fifth, Frost singled, stole second and scored on Bieble's two-bagger. Bieble tallied on Lewis's error.

Another blank inning, and in the seventh Bieble singled; he stole second, and scored on Hicks's hit. The latter went to third on the attempt to catch Bieble at the plate, and scored on Eacho's second hit.

The last run was made by Hulcher. He singled, caught second on a wild pitch, and scored because the ball went through a hole under the grandstand, and then hit out hard for three bases, and scored on Holland's out at first. Bache singled, went to second on Bieble's fumble, stole third and came home on Lewis's two-bagger. The Barton Heights contingent in Rooters' Row about 1,000 strong, "hyped" the Brownies mascot, cautioned them through his megaphone to "wait awhile."

Tied the Score.

For four innings nothing else was done. In the sixth two men hit the dust. Then Lewis singled and scored on Boone's two-bagger, while the latter crossed over on Tritton's double. That tied the score, and "Hippy" was intensely quiet, while the Barton Heights howled.

Brownies got ahead again in the next inning, and all Barton Heights could do was to make one more run in the seventh. Two men were out, when Holland went to bat. He hit a little dink out towards third base. Half the grandstand declared that the hit was foul, the other half said it was fair. This brought in a runner, and made very little effort to gather it up. Umpire Dalton decided the ball fair, and Holland did not stop running until he landed on second bag. He then scored on McEvoy's hit. That was all, and with the shadow thickly falling, the game came to an end, with the Brownies still champions of Virginia.

League Championship.
